VOL. XXIV.

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1908

NO. 31

57 When you have a news item or wish to communicate with THE OUTLOOK office by phone ring up 57

Don't forget to see the cheap counter at Mrs. Estill's.

Try B. Frank Perry for the famous White Star Coffee.

16x20 picture frames $1 to $1.25 each. J. M. BROWN.

For first-class, clean groceries and prompt delivery try B. Frank Perry.

Rev. Ed. Sanford will preach at Harper's school house next Sunday night.

Rev. E. B. Crump is preaching at Reynoldsville. He reports a good meeting.

The wind on Wednesday of last week did some damage by blowing down fodder and fencing.

The pretty weather will start the burning of tobacco beds if it continues a few days longer.

The young child of John Stull died near Kendall's Spring Sunday. The father died Feb. 4th.

Card-laid barbed and smooth wire just received; prices low and guaranteed. E. L. & A. T. BYRON.

WE MUST HAVE OUR MONEY, so please call and settle. S. SLESNER.

Those indebted to Palmer & Coons please call and settle. OSCAR PALMER.

If you want an auctioneer I am your man. Terms reasonable. M. D. FARIS.

The Fiscal Court met Tuesday to make a settlement with ex-Sheriff Johnson M. Atchison and do some other business.

Card-laid of Birdsell wagons; all sizes, every one guaranteed; prices the lowest. E. L. & A. T. BYRON.

The small crop situation throughout the State regularly grows worse. The mountain counties of Eastern Kentucky are especially affected.

The school of the Montgomery county farm and the Forge Mill farm of the late E. M. Faring offer rare opportunities to those who want the farm.

A safe in the personal property belonging to the late M. D. Faris Morgan will take place Tuesday, Feb. 17th, at the same place near Reynoldsville.

Investment in the sale of the Bell farm is the best.

On Feb. 10th, 1908, a fine lot of 22 down will lamb about Feb. 22. Oldest sheep is 5 years old and youngest 2-year-old this spring. J. M. MOORE, Forge Hill, Ky.

Robert Nixon's little daughter Ruth was slightly hurt Tuesday morning by a horse driven by a man on a loggy wagon, and was running against the child.

Sale.—On Saturday, Feb. 21st, I will sell on the premises the household furniture of the late Mrs. Ailsa Clayton in the town of Owensville. JOHN CHANDLER, Adm.

HURT BY FALLING TREE.—It was reported here last week that Dick Garrett, of Fisher Stephens, was badly hurt by being caught under a falling tree while engaged in cutting timber.

On Feb. 27th, 1908, the Forge Mill farm of the late F. M. Ewing will be sold to the highest bidder. The sale will include the watered floor and all the improvements. This is a splendid chance for investment.

BUCKING AND FURNITURE.—T. S. Shroust starts in the new year with a large and complete stock of huggies and furniture of all kinds to suit new beginners in house-keeping. Call and see him. Cash on credit.

On Feb. 28th, 1908, a fine lot of the fine Montgomery county farm of the late F. M. Ewing will be sold to the highest bidder. There are among the most desirable farms in Kentucky. See large ad in this issue.

FOR SALE.—A full set of bicycle and gun tools, consisting of 1000 lbs. brassing force, 100 lbs. and 50 lbs. small tools, all kinds of bicycle and gun repairing tools, 3 bicycles and 3 breech-loading guns. No other shop in town. J. A. POWELL, Owensville, Ky.

Federal Furnishings. Prompt equiptment and modern services; also the first-class furniture of all descriptions. Call and see before purchasing elsewhere. M. D. FARIS, Owensville, Ky. J. L. Hesse, General Director and Embalmer.

New Outfit.—C. B. Dake, of Mason City, and J. Ashton, of Spencer, Iowa, who were here last fall and secured a lease and option of purchase on 600 acres of land on Salt Lick Creek, with other callists organized the Salt Lick Valley Oil and Gas Co. and incorporated same under the laws of South Dakota. The company will sink at least two wells and have oil on sale before they offer any more of the stock.

PERSONAL.

Jessie Turney of Paris, was here last week with relatives.

C. C. Hazelrigg, of Frankfort, was here Saturday on business.

J. M. Hight was on the Louisville tobacco breaks last week.

Claude Doyle went to Lexington Tuesday and had his eyes treated by a specialist.

Henry Hopkins and Josh Ewing have returned from a business trip to Bourbon Co.

Mrs. Milt Hager (nee Ida Green, formerly of this town), of Paris, has made a visit to Owensville.

Mrs. J. M. Ross went to Mt. Sterling Monday to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary R. Samuels.

J. C. Powell, of Grange City, will leave next Monday to make his home again at Athens, Meigs Co.

Wm. Caudill, candidate for the public nomination for Election Commissioner, was here Monday.

John McKinnivan has returned from a several-weeks' visit to relatives in Scott and Woodford county.

Thomas McClintock and son, of Millersburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Perry Sunday and Monday.

Ray Campbell, who was sick for a few days last week, is back at his post of duty.—Central News, Danville.

Mrs. Bert Daniel and little son have returned from a visit to relatives in Lexington and Georgetown.

A letter from Clay Byron states that he and Charlie Brother are established at the Baltimore Hotel, St. Louis, Mo.

Thomas McClintock and son William, of Millersburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Perry Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Rouben Gudgeon, who has been ill in health for some months, went to Louisville Tuesday to consult a specialist. She was accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Gudgeon.

The following were visitors here Monday: J. H. Alexander, of July; Oscar Donelson, of Elizabeth; Edmund Anderson, of Sunset.

Charlie Brother left last week for St. Louis, Mo., where he expects to locate. The best wishes of his many friends in this section go with him.

John P. Latham's son Sherman, aged about six years, of Kayser's Branch, has typhoid fever. His daughters Annie and Eva are improving.

Mr. Sterling visitors here Monday: B. C. Gatewood, V. V. Glover, J. D. Sewell, T. L. Darnell, Bruce P. Dutt, Walter Harper, Dr. Ben Triplett, B. W. Trimble.

Mr. M. Ester returned the past week and shipped his household goods to Louisville. His family will leave Thursday. Their many friends wish them well in their new home.

Leo Rogers of Louisville, was here with relatives several days last week. He is in the employ of the Livingston and Corbin to look over the coal mines, as he contemplates purchasing a coal yard in Louisville.

Emmett Pratum is convalescent from a long illness. He is expected to leave for his home Sunday, and thought of coming home Sunday, but on account of the four days of the poor, probably he will not be able to do so.

The City Council won't let me sell my goods at auction, but they can't keep me from selling cheaper than any house in town. Come in to see for yourself.

Mrs. D. S. ESTILL.

CIRCUIT COURT DOCKET.—The February term of Circuit Court will convene next Monday. The docket is made up of 75 old ordinary cases, 17 ordinary appearances, 60 old equity, 16 equity appearances, 59 old Commonwealth and 24 Commonwealth appearances.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—A 111e Crockett, son of J. Taylor Crockett, shot Bill Radtiff, son of Newton Radtiff, at Sharpburg Monday. The ball struck a Masonic ritual in Radtiff's side coat pocket, fracturing two ribs.—Crockett said the shooting was accidental.

MEETINGS.—Rev. C. W. Musgrave will preach at Salt Well next Sunday morning and night. Also he will preach here at the Court-house by request the first Sunday after noon in March. He had a fair-sized audience at the Court-house Sunday.

Samuel Crank, of Dupont, Ind., arrived here last week to assist in the prosecution during Circuit Court of Frank Dempsey for killing James Crank here June 5, 1902. Subscriptions are being solicited by Dempsey's friends to employ an attorney to defend him.

BEATEN BY MAD-DOG.—Jeff Love, of Madison county, was brought to Owensville on a stretcher last week suffering from a mad-dog bite. The dog attacked Lovelace and knocked him down, springing upon the prostrate man and lacerated one leg and thigh badly. The stone adhered to the wound some time.

BEST ONE IN THE COUNTY.—Dr. G. W. Conner sold Monday to Thomas McClintock, of Millersburg, a 4-year-old coach horse for $215. The horse was sired by Dr. Conner's stallion J. S. Brown, who has had more high-priced horses than any other stallion in this county.—One of his sold last fall for $325.

THE NEW PAPER.—Patterson & Rimsby will get out the first issue of the Messenger Thursday of the former Democratic paper. The new paper is to be published in the town and capable of making a mark in country journalism. Anybody who will have lots of money a "rural rooster." The Outlook certainly wishes him well.

CARD OF THANKS.—Having been assisted through the hardest trial of my life I feel like, through the columns of your good paper, thanking all who have been so kind to me.

The physicians did all that medical skill could do to save him who was dearer than life to me, and those who waited on him could not have been more self-defending and faithful. The deepest gratitude is due all who in any way helped and sympathized with me in my affliction.

RUTH RATLIFF.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT.—To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Craftsmen of Elks Lodge No. 55, F. & A. M.: The undersigned special committee, to whom was referred the matter of passing resolutions expressive of the sense of this lodge with respect to the memory of our deceased brother Algin S. Thomas, now report.

Brother Thomas was born Jan. 13, 1835, and died Jan. 31, 1903, being 68 years and 18 days old. He had resided in Owensville for more than thirty years, fifteen years of which time he was postmaster. He had his Masonic degrees conferred on him by this lodge, taking his last day of April, 1876. He was a faithful member, and lived up truly to the precepts and teachings of the fraternity. At our last anniversary meeting held on Dec. 27 he was made a free member of the lodge. He was also a faithful member of the Methodist church, and a Sunday school teacher and Superintendent for many years. He was in all the walks of life an exemplary man, having the esteem of all classes of his fellow citizens. Therefore,

Resolved, That, in the death of our dear brother this lodge has sustained a loss that brings a personal sorrow to each member of the lodge, the community a loss of a good citizen, and his church a Christian man whose place cannot readily be supplied. That each member of this lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days and that the lodge hall for the same time be draped in mourning.

That these resolutions be published in the local newspaper and a copy be furnished to his nearest relatives. Feb. 1, 1903. REUBEN GUDGEON, A. T. BYRON, J. J. NESBITT.

COURT DAY.—Monday was a bright, but cool day, and the largest crowd in many years attended Court. Trade was fair to good with the merchants, though the people generally seemed more intent on stock trading than on buying merchandise.

There were about 150 cattle of mixed quality, 50 hogs and 40 sheep on the market. About two-thirds of the cattle were sold, though the market was rather ragged. Among the sales were: Sam Latham sold George Kerr four 650-lb steers at 31c; to Jo Dawson four short-yearling steers at 18c per head; he also sold a cow and calf for 35c; a fat cow at 3c; bought of Caleb Ratliff some short 2-year-old steers at 25c per head; sold a sow and four pigs to Dr. Wm. E. Phillips for 25c; to Omar Wilson seven 125-pound shoats at 5c; bought of J. J. Copher eighteen eyes at 3c per pair.

Wm. Tapp bought six 700-lb. 2-year-old steers at $32.50 per head. G. W. Allen sold five 2-year-old steers for 16c.

Wm. Steole and Robert Clark sold six yearling steers at $15 per head; J. D. J. Power sold four yearlings at $20 per head.

There were a good many mules and horses on the market. Some sales were: T. S. Shroust sold a 2-year-old jack to Dan Rice, of Fleming, for $200; a 3-year-old horse for $100; a 3-year-old horse for $125; to Chas. Hamilton, of North Middletown, a horse for $135; to Jimmy Maxey a yearling for $100.

Chas. McClintock and son William, of Millersburg, bought five mules and a horse.

Dan T. Morris, of Paris, bought a horse for $97.50 and a mare for $125.

Geo. Jones sold four horses.

Chas. Hamilton bought a horse of James Day for $125 and one of Taylor for $105.

J. R. Vico sold a horse for $160. J. C. Powell bought a pair of mules for $135 and resold them for $140.

AT COST

I have concluded to add a complete line of Dry Goods and Notions to my large stock of Clothing, Shoes and Men's Furnishing Goods. In order to make room for spring purchases and to avoid carrying over winter goods I will continue selling all goods in stock at cost until stock is sufficiently reduced. Don't forget this and go elsewhere and pay the usual profit when you can save at least 25% by going to GILLON'S, OWINGSVILLE, KY.

NO AUCTION

Having been informed that I would have to pay a license that is absolutely prohibitive in my case there will be no auction as previously announced. I will continue to sell all winter goods at cost, many articles for less than cost, and some at your own price. See them.
